

Website Effectiveness Checklist

Find out if your website meets the following criteria so visitors are engaged, impressed and compelled to take action?

Take the Web Effectiveness Challenge!

Check those that apply to your website...

Branding & Identification

- My site expresses the value I bring and my unique competitive advantage.
- My logo is prominently displayed on the header of each page.
- The color scheme is compatible with my logo and overall brand.
- My contact information appears or is linked to from each page of the site.
- My images express the benefits I offer and the feeling I create.

Navigation & Content

- My site's navigation is consistent throughout the site and easy to find and use.
- My page content is written in a way that expresses me, my brand and my unique offer.
- All pages have been proofed for proper grammar, spelling and punctuation.
- All links function properly and draw my visitors toward my compelling offer.
- Each email account reference has been set up and tested.

Compelling & Effective

- I offer a free bonus gift on my home page that inspires visitors to provide their names and email in exchange for a compelling free gift.
- My free gift is delivered automatically via an email within minutes of the visitor providing their information.
- My bonus gift appropriately showcases my unique offer and inspires recipients to learn more about my products and services.
- I offer a monthly ezine that enables me to build a relationship over time by providing valuable content and consistent communication.
- I can take orders online through a secure credit card processing service.
- I have an easy-to-access database management system that enables me to manage, update and edit my list of subscribers, clients and products.

Legal & Compliance

- A copyright notice appears at the bottom of each web page.
- A release or permission has been obtained for all photos used on my website.

- Permission has been obtained to use the work of others and credit has been given when necessary.
- I have a page that outlines the recommended usage policies so I am in full compliance with online retail regulations.

Security & Technical

- I use a secure credit card processing service and display the appropriate logo to instill customer confidence.
- All forms have been tested and function properly.
- Resulting data from sales is properly stored and easily accessed.
- The e-commerce pages bear recognized security emblems.
- My hosting service can support projected traffic and security needs.

SEO Maximization

- Each page has a unique page title.
- Keywords have been embedded into each page.
- My page text includes ample keywords, which improves my search engine ranking.
- I provide a considerable amount of valuable and relevant content in my web pages for optimal SEO.
- I regularly submit my site to search engine or use a submission service to do so.

Site Traffic Marketing Plan

- I am familiar with the top five ways to increase traffic to my site and have selected three methods for my marketing efforts.
- I have a way of tracking orders I receive on my website so that I can thank (and compensate) those who are referring my product and services to their clients.
- I have established clear objectives for my Marketing Plan and know what steps I can take each day/week to create the results I desire.
